1949 WITTENBERGER

WITTENBERG COLLEGE

SPRINGFIELD, OHIO

COPYRIGHT 1949 BY HAROLD RHOADS · DEAN SPRAGG

SUCH IS LIFE

This is your 1949 edition of THE WITTENBERGER. From the mayan figure of 1949 on the cover to the final page it has been designed to fulfill the purpose of a complete YEARBOOK.

True, the system that fed the presses has been generally altered from that of previously used approaches. In the belief that we have attained a truer perspective of the campus life, we have departed in some cases from traditional section and page arrangement. Literary efforts have been reduced from a torrent to a trickle, but the lens of our camera has been widened to its fullest scope to draw into our book the greatest possible amount of your life at Wittenberg.

There is no visible theme as such; but, as you go through the pages, you will become aware of an underlying theme: YOU, the people of Wittenberg and your story in two hundred and forty pages of pictures.

miss wittenberger

Chosen from the select group of eighteen candidates nominated by the nine fraternities, Miss Carol Griesinger reigns as queen of our book and Miss Wittenberger for 1949. The judging, made strictly on the photogenic merits of the candidate, was handled by Mr. Axel Bahnsen, nationally noted photographer and member of the American Photographers Society of America.

To the average student, the term "twenty-nine years" is merely a statement of fact; to Wittenberg College, it represents an era of amazing physical and academic achievement; to Dr. Rees Edgar Tulloss, it encompasses a lifetime of outstanding service to an institution and adherence to an ideal. In 1920, Dr. Tulloss returned to Wittenberg as President of the College. He returned to a barren campus that did not yet contain Zimmerman Library, Koch Hall, Blair Hall, Weaver Observatory, or the present field house. He took over the leadership of a faculty of thirteen men and conducted all-college convocations in the present chapel. As President, he was the only officer of the College and allocated a budget of $69,000.

During his twenty-nine years as President, the College has grown from six buildings to twelve; its operating budget now surpasses the million dollar mark; its faculty numbers over a hundred; and its student body of fourteen hundred makes Wittenberg the largest of all colleges in the United Lutheran Synod. And today, as he prepares to leave the active campus scene, the comparative physical preponderance of the institution, its prestige among educators, its esteem among the supporting churches, the depths of its academic growth, and even the tremendous amount of student energy exerted in campus activities represent a monumental tribute to an amazing personality.

Because of his vision and integrity of purpose, because of his extreme importance in Wittenberg history, and because of our sincere admiration of his unswerving determination to achieve a high ideal in Christian education, — we dedicate the 1949 Wittenberger to Dr. Rees Edgar Tulloss, President of Wittenberg College, 1920-1949 !

To the outsider ,the term "college" usually prescribes bearded profesors and bustling students. To us at Wittenberg the design of college life mushrooms into little circles of people that lend a definite service to the student in his hours outside of the classroom. Those circles include: Mrs. Lillian Dunmire (upper left), book store manager; "Mom" Matthews (center), student union manager; Pearl Jones (above), secretary to Dean Nystrom; Ray Flaker (inset), campus policeman; Lois Gumpper (right in upper circle), head dietitian; Myers dining hall staff (lower circle). Housemothers: Mrs. Ione Trottman, Alpha Delta Pi; Mrs. Rhuie Carle, Gamma Phi Beta; Frances Smith and Betty Amstutz, Mercycrest; Mrs. Mary McCampbell, Myers Hall; Mrs. Lucille St. Clair and Miss Mary Immel, Ferncliff Hall; Mrs. Leslie Compton, Woodlawn Hall; Mrs. Julia Hand, Kappa Delta; Mrs. M. A. Rochester, Chi Omega; Mrs. Alice Miller, Delta Zeta; Mrs. Heath, Phi Kappa Psi; Mrs. Roxie Moore, Alpha Xi Delta.

Overlooking the rolling slopes of the campus, Hamma Divinity School is the high symbol of Lutheranism at Wittenberg.

With seven full-time professors, the school presents to the graduate student an unequalled opportunity in theological training. Consequently, Hamma enjoys the greatest of esteem throughout the ULCA synod.

Contrary to the opinion of some, the seminary students do not spend their evening hours in Keller Hall shining halos. No, the future ministers wrap up an occasional package for foreign missions, indulge in banquets and parties, and have just as many "bull sessions" as the boys in Myers — about women. The organized activities of the group are directed by a student association. Such activities include regular chapel service at Hamma and general church work through the local area.

Despite the usual rain, the attraction of the champion Denison Big Red and an extensive program drew one of the biggest homecoming day crowds since the heyday of the pre-war era. "Bigger and Better" is a phrase that is becoming almost trite at Wittenberg, but the homecoming committee went a few steps further. With over 1500 served at the barbecue and some 1200 attending the evening dance, it is believed a new field house attendance record was set for a Wittenberg event.

homecoming queen

Photogenic Mary Alice Teeter reigned as queen during the homecoming game against Denison. Serving as her attendants were (top to bottom) Carol Parmley, Marilyn Claes, Carol Griesinger.

House decorations since the war have become increasingly intricate. Alpha Xi Delta (right), the sorority winner, constructed a giant newsboy complete with a flailing arm and wailing voice. Fraternity winner, Beta Theta Pi (below), built a display around a transplanted billboard. Realistic action was achieved by synchronizing the arms of the painters. On the opposite page are the remaining thirteen decorations.

Growing out of an old stunt nite tradition, the Interfraternity Council sponsored Varsity Nite is one of the year's annual highlights. WOW

Something new hit the campus when Don McCullough and his swimmers decided to attend the National Aquatic Clinic at Fort Lauderdale, Florida. McCullough, an ex-circus man, organized a giant carnival to defray expenses that eventually gained the full-fledged support of all social and honorary organizations. In addition to "Mac," much of the credit for an unusually successful campus venture goes to student director Boyd Gibson.

Mildly opposed by the administration, the faculty, and near-by restaurants, hobo day is the spring escape-valve for student steam built up over a long winter. It marks one more campus tradition that becomes more elaborate with each year. As for the day's activities, the pictures speak for themselves.

First place winners in the State Contests this year were Don Clinton in the Peace Oratory and Dick Wehler in Extemporaneous Speaking. Wehler was elected the men's most valuable debater while Dee Pfeifer was chosen for the honor among the women.

dramatics

Confining the cast to members of the dramatics class and concentrating on just two three-act plays for the season, Blair theater crowds were greeted with top-notch stage presentation and scenery. The fall production, "The Late George Apley," was directed by the veteran Howard Gongwer while Joyce Snyder handled the direction of the spring classic, "Death Takes a Holiday." Leads Kenny Dickerson and Jeanne Wright in "Apley" and Minton Brees and Margaret Rhodes in "Death" turned in surprisingly good performances.

"Too little depth—too many injuries." — the time-worn lament of football coaches was never more applicable to the Tigers than during the 1948 season. Although seasoned players were at a premium, squad morale was high for the season's opener, perhaps a little too high—little-known Hillsdale crushed the Tigers 26-0. The following week found the team still down and the Ohio Northern Polar Bears slugged to a 14-7 victory. With the count two and nothing against them, the Tigers still retained loyal student fans, but few gave the team much chance for a successful season. Invading Kenyon, they suddenly came to life after a third-quarter 14-0 lead over an underdog team and blasted to a 39-7 victory with an electrifying display of running by Browne, Beymer, Popko, and Stasco. Wittenberg stock went up several points, but the student body failed to realize that this game marked a turning point. The injury train began with Kenyon and continued right through to Wooster. Many front-line players spent more time in the training room than on the practice field. With injuries thinning out the starting eleven and making a shambles of the reserves, the Tigers became a three-quarter ball club. Mt. Union took a 20-6 decision, Heidelberg scored twice in the final frame for a 14-0 win, Marietta rolled to a 26-7 mark, champion Denison outplayed the Tigers in the second period of the Homecoming game and won going away, 32-14, and Wooster finished up a dismal season for the record books with a 31-7 setback for the Tigers in a Migration Day battle. Thus the 1948 season marked the most disastrous in fifty-six years of Wittenberg football; it also marked a new high in injuries and the absence of luck.

Dick Browne(carrying ball) was the most consistent ground gainer of the season and was selected by his team-mates as the 'Most Valuable Player." He later received honorable mention on Tom Harmon's Little-All-American tabulation.

The main reason behind the Tiger's seemingly unerring ability to lose ball games during the 1948 season wos the unbelievable number of injuries to key personnel. Bandage-swathed tackler in the foreground is Armin Reissin.

Newcomers to Wittenberg football were guided this year bu Bernie Allison, likewise a newcomer in the athletic department. The Cubs were limited to three games, but in active competition they gained a good share of gridiron experience.

The Cubs defeated Wilmington 20 to 6, coming from behind to post the victory. The Frosh had a nip-and-tuck battle with the Baby Bishops of Ohio Wesleyan, but came out on the short end of the score, 9 to 7. In the finale at Gambier, the Kenyon freshmen edged the Cubs in the final quarter, 18 to 24.

Twenty-five men were awarded numerals at the annual gridiron banquet.

Opening up wtih four new faces on the starting quintet, the Cardinal and Cream suffered first-night jitters and dropped a ragged tilt to little Earlham. Back on their own floor, they became a new ball club featuring no star, but good, sound team-work. And it was team-work that carried the Tigers to six victories in their next eight starts. Leading the conference for over three weeks, the Tiger victory spark died out as suddenly as it began. Plagued by an inability to win road games, the remaining seven games were lost by five close margins and two decisive routes, and the Tigers gradually slipped down to their final rung of twelfth of seventeen entrants. Starting five for the Tigers were Ed Makowski, Dick Leffel, Jim Hardman, Bill Roeth, and Deane Wallace, with Bill Dillon, Walt Kendig, Jim Cornwell, Bob Shannon, and Wally Moll providing the main reserve strength. Makowski racked up 300 points in sixteen games for a 18.75 average and a new sophomore scoring record.

Despite the poor record of only six victories, the Tigers turned in several games with more thrills-per-minute than any game for several years. In the first home game, the highly-touted Georgetown Hoyas were defeated 72-61 by a fast break and a thrilling overtime. On February 5, the Marietta Pioneers invaded Springfield with lopsided victories over power laden Kent State, Ohio University, and Ohio Wesleyan. A capacity crowd was treated to a spectacular uphill battle by the Tigers, with a sensational long shot by Deane Wallace knotting the count at 71-all as the final buzzer sounded. Ed Makowski was fouled on the play, and the sophomore ace broke the deadlock and the hearts of the Marietta team with his perfect charity toss.

Bill Roeth, saphomore guard, was voted "Most Valuable Player" by the squad.

Behind Coach Bob Blackburn, the Wittenberg freshmen compiled a perfect intercollegiate record of six victories. The Cubs crushed the Big Red of Denison 64-52 at the field house, and ten days later repeated the performance by a score of 66-44 at Granville. At Wilmington they rolled over the Quakers 57-47, and swarmed over Ohio Wesleyan in a 76-46 verdict. The Cubs leveled Ohio Northern 71-60, and finished the season with a decisive victory over Ohio Northern 99-50. The starting five of Loyal Bishop, Tom Eberhard, Gene Gherlein, Dudley Moore, and Perk Robbins, as well as Tom Ferree, Jerry Hosket, Jerry Janosek, and Dick Pence were awarded numerals at the annual basketball banquet.

Golf, tumbling, swimming, tennis, dancing, and volleyball are only a few among the myriad of service courses instructed in the physical education department. Some of the more unique courses are camping, archery, handball, and heavy apparatus.

Behind the expert tutoring of Don McCullough, the mermen compiled a blazing record of nine victories against three setbacks. The season was noteworthy on not only the record but also because of the unprecedented student backing that sent "Mac" and eleven key men down to Fort Lauderdale, Florida, to attend the National Aquatic Forum during Christmas recess. Wittenberg and Ohio State were the only Buckeye representatives in such aquatic circles as Yale, Michigan, Dartmouth, LaSalle, and Princeton.

Wittenberg took a fourth in the Ohio Conference Relays with first place taken by powerful Oberlin. Competition for the next three slots was very keen, with the mermen bowing to Kenyon and Kent State. Bob Blesch churned to an undefeated season in twelve dual meets, scoring 125.25 points to set a new individual record. Pete Fowler scored 100.23 points and John Geils wound up in the show spot with 72.14 points. In point totals, the Tiger mermen scored 562 to 317.

Letters were awarded to Robert Blesch, John Byrom, Coe Dickey, Peter Fowler, John Geils, Gale Galbreath, Jim Garrison, Boyd Gibson, Bill Heath, and Vic Moellering. With reinforcements from a powerful freshman team to compensate for present varsity shortages, prospects for next year's season look very bright.

baseball

Elwood Pitzer, Wittenberg All-American alumnus, coached the diamond squad to a 5-2 season. The Tigers opened with a 15-6 trouncing of Findlay with Hiles pitching, and Roeth followed up by pitching a 9-7 win over Muskingum. With Bremer pitching, Wilmington lost 11-9 and Denison went down 6-3 with Hiles on the rubber. Capital eked out a 7-6 decision, followed by a tie and a 7-6 verdict over Ashland with Bremer and Walsh sharing the mound duties. Hiles finished the season with a 4-1 loss to Marietta. Letters were awarded Bob Beckstedt, Herb Bonner, Fred Bremer, Kale Canfield, Bob Decker, Gene Fellmuth, Jim Hardman, John Hiles, Walt Kendig, Chet LaBuda, Pete Lizza, Dick Leffel, Dave Morgan, Bill Roeth, Jim Walsh, George Winkhouse.

Under Bob Blackburn, the 1948 Tiger thinclads rang up the first undefeated track season in Wittenberg's history.

In the Kenyon opener, the Tigers bypassed the Lords 67½-59½. This victory was followed by a 89½-37½ triumph over Ohio Northern and a 100-27 romp over Findlay. In a triangular meet with Heidelberg and Findlay, Wittenberg topped the scoring 68 to 67½ and 23½ respectively. Floundering in a 91-36 trouncing Wilmington was next on the victory list. In the season finale, the Tigers pasted Capital with a sound 79-48 defeat. A hot conference relay meet left Wittenberg tied for fourth in a field of nineteen.

Only Cliff Sampson and Bob Hollis stood out on a notably well-balanced team. For the second straight year, Cliff took the conference shot-put and Bob, undefeated throughout the season in the dashes, bowed only to Olympic champion Harrison Dillard.

Letters were awarded to Bob Hollis, Bill Lane, Jim Loehr, Bill Moore, Bill Roeth, Henry Saeman, Nick Theodore, Cliff Sampson, Bob Walsh, and Jack Williams.

The Tiger netmen were guided by Don McCullough through a season hampered by rain. The opening match at Ohio Wesleyan was copped by the Bishops 6-1. The Tigers then played host to a winning Capital team 4-3. The Wilmington Quakers were shut out 6-0 and then visited Springfield to be defeated 6-1. Ohio Wesleyan poured the pressure on and swept the Tigers 7-0. Muskingum downed the Tigers 5-2 and Capital duplicated this score in the season finale. Letters were awarded Earl Fritts, Don Gast, Bill Renz, Bob Shannon.

Of a ten match schedule, only seven matches actually materialized due to cancellations and weather conditions. In the opener April 26, the team received a severe setback, 10½-½. However, this defeat was countered with a 10-2 victory over Findlay followed closely by victories over both Ashland and Heidelberg by the score of 7-5. In return matches Findlay and Heidelberg were defeated 9-3, and 6½-5½ respectively. In the conference matches at Granville, Wittenberg was fifth in a field of fifteen.

Letters were awarded to Frank Csaszar, James Dunkel, Sam Knappenberg, and Richard Shay.

This concludes our depiction of your life at Wittenberg during 1949. We believe we have caught new angles and visas never before captured by the camera lens. If the book has met with complete approval by you — the graduating class of 1949 and the undergraduates of Wittenberg — our original aim has been achieved.

To record and publish the greatest volume of pictures in the 104 years of Wittenberg College, and to distribute the books before the school year ended (the second time in the history of the Wittenberger) required a tremendous amount of work from many people. To photographer Jim McKaig, to Charlotte Stolzenbach, Joan Warth, and other staff members, to Bob Poland who operated the linotype machine after class hours, to Mr. Sims and Mr. Nelson who produced the covers in a short time, to Dave Marrus who volunteered assistance at the printing plant, and to the many people at the Carpenter Printing Co.— all credit and appreciation is due for their unceasing efforts to help us publish this book and on time. — thanks!
